

USG True Wood Renditions Panels feature architecturally inspired designs on simple 2x2 modular panels.

The elegance, warmth and majesty of true wood with dozens of creative design possibilities. Each design can be arranged in the ceiling to create many different visuals based on each panel's orientation.

In addition to installing quickly and easily, True Wood Rendition Panels offer the following features:

- Provided in AR edge to minimize the reveal and hide the grid
- All natural veneers
- Eight design motifs
- FSC certified
- Class A fire rating
